HIGH WATER.

It Washes Out the Shopiere and Turtleville Bridges.

Trains on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Road Much Delayed.

Truck Damage Done.

(Special to the Gazette.)

SNOWDRIFT, Feb. 8.—This forenoon about 11 o'clock the Shopiere bridge went out under the high pressure of ice and water. It is expected that it will take the Turtleville and Hort bridges when it strikes them as the bridge went out, whole. The water extends across the flat over to the road near Mr. Earle's place and is full of large cakes of ice which are sweeping everything before them. Such a sight has never been seen here before. Mr. Sears' mill dam is still holding its own but is expected to break out every hour. The loss to the town cannot be estimated at present, but it will be a very large amount.

—LATER.

The Turtleville bridge has gone out, and there is no doubt but that this will take the Hort bridge, which is about half way to Beloit. The water is running over the dyke, nearly the whole length, and will do many hundreds of dollars' damage to Mr. Sears, and the end is not yet.

The north side of the Turtleville mill has been undermined and gone out, also the west-west of the Shopiere dam. It is feared that the whole of Turtleville mill will go out, as the ice is bumping against the foundation and is making the whole building shake.

There have been no trains over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road all day. Neither the freight that is due here at five o'clock in the morning nor any of the passenger trains were able to leave the yards. A heavy rain set in there yesterday and continued all night. Turtle creek which runs beneath the railroad track near Rockford swelled rapidly and finally carried away the bridge over which the track runs. The creek burst its bounds and covered the track in some places with five feet of water. In the round house, even, the water was three feet deep and no engines could be taken out.

At eight o'clock this morning families living in the lower parts of the city were driven from their houses, in some cases being obliged to call for help. About ten however, the rain stopped and the water began to subside going down one foot before eleven o'clock.

At Beloit a telegraph pole that stood at the bank of the creek was washed away and all telegraphic communication cut off. Because of this the train from Madison to Rockford that reached Janesville at 8:40 this morning remained here until 2 o'clock this afternoon and then returned to Madison, it not being thought best to finish the run when nothing could be feared of the condition of the road.

REGARDING THOSE FILES.

Mr. Carpenter says that they will be Driven Very soon.

"Just as soon as the ice around the raft at the dam throws out I shall make arrangements for driving piles," said Ed. P. Carpenter this morning. "Have I bought them? O yes, I bought them last fall and they are at the depot now. You see, I was confident of coming out ahead from the time that I first started this thing. The decision of the supreme court was all that I could have asked for. It was stated in that that in the earlier days of the state Rock river was undoubtedly navigable in certain parts, and was used for floating logs, rafts and small boats; but that by allowing the erection of bridges without draws and dams with out look, both in this state and Illinois the public had abandoned the river for navigable purposes.

"The only thing left for the mill owners to do now," continued Mr. Carpenter, smiling, "is to see me for damage done to their property by interference with their power. If they do that they must prove that the piles which I will drive directly in line with those of the bridge, rather than the Monterey dam, the Griffith building, Peter Myers building with its stone foundation directly in the center of the stream, or the Milwaukee street bridge itself, are the ones that caused the back water. I'm not very much afraid as far as I am concerned, and I believe that more than half of the people in Janesville to-day would favor the erection of buildings clear across the bridge on each side."

A long felt want is Fairbank's noted Laundry Soap. Go for it—any grocer's.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Steinhart and four children started for Portland, Oregon, last night.

—Superintendent G. A. DeLong, of the United States Express company, was in the city to-day.

—Mr. A. J. Gorham, wife and two children, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, are in the city, guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hall, River street.

—Mr. George A. Ellis, civil engineer, representing the water works firm of Turner, Clark & Rawson, of Boston, is in the city in the interest of his company, seeking a franchise for the building of a water works plant in Janesville.

—Mr. L. F. Holloway returned from Hillsdale, Michigan this morning after attending the golden wedding of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Holloway. It is seldom that an entire family is spared until this notable anniversary arrives, but at the gathering in Hillsdale on last Friday this was the case. No vacant chair made the occasion less joyful as every member of the family was present.

CONCERNING.

—The Gazette is one of the largest and best circulated newspapers in the state. The subscription price is only 12 cents a week, delivered to any part of the city.

—D. Conger has a fine list of houses and lots for sale at a bargain.

NEWLY ELECTED OFFICERS.

Are Now in Charge at the Business Men's Association and the Public Factory.

Last evening President Oscar F. Nowlan took his seat at the Business Men's Association, Ed. G. Fifeid acting as secretary pro tem.

Before assuming the duties of his office Mr. Nowlan made a few remarks as to the association's future and what should be done to make it a successful one. He suggested that the fees for admission be cut down, that the yearly dues also be made smaller and that the club oven, instead of rent, billiard and pool tables for the rooms. The building and Loan Association has strongly favored speaking at some length concerning it. The standing committee for the year as announced by President Nowlan at the close of his remarks are as follows:

By Laws—O. E. Pierce, E. M. Hyzer and W. T. Vankirk.

City Public Improvements—S. B. Smith, Pliny Norcross and H. D. McKim.

The Wisconsin State company's works started up yesterday. They are now under the charge of a new board of officers. The president is Levi B. Carle, and the vice president, Dr. Henry Palmer, while W. S. Jeffris and Sylvester Morgan are treasurer and secretary respectively. The board of directors consists of Dr. Henry Palmer, Levi B. Carle, N. C. Baker, W. S. Jeffris, G. A. Chapman, William A. Lawrence and Dr. W. H. Palmer.

WATER WORKS.

Two more propositions are now before the common council for the construction of water works in this city, to be owned and operated by a private company. One of these propositions—that of S. K. Bullock & Co.—calls for a 7,000,000 gallon reservoir at Oak Hill, the other—Turner, Clark & Rawson, is known as the combination of standpipe and direct pressure system. Both propositions were presented to the council last evening in the shape of an ordinance drawn by the companies presenting the same, embracing in each case the details of the franchise sale, and the privileges such proposed to give. These ordinances were referred to the city attorney, the finance and the judiciary committees, who will examine the same and report to a special meeting of the common council to be held on Saturday evening. At the present time there is a division of opinion regarding the two systems among our people, which we understand will be carefully considered by the committee before taking final action. On the other hand a petition is being circulated remonstrating against any change in the proposed system of water works ownership and the friends of city ownership are showing numerous hands. The Gazette is in favor of the best system of water works within reach, and while its columns are open for the discussion of this important question, it does not propose to forestall public sentiment nor lead it astray. This question of water works is one for the taxpayers to decide
